STORYLINE

Driven by the quest to create superhumans, Dr. Samuel Everett developed a serum. But its side effects turned the people into aggressive zombies. Chaos spread as the infected multiplied. A small group sought a cure, but time ran out. The pursuit for greatness unleashed an apocalypse, a stark reminder of the dangers of tampering with nature's balance.

In the midst of the world ravaged by the zombie apocalypse, a ray of hope emerged in the form of an all-female warrior group known as Gynaika. These fierce women banded together, not only to survive the relentless onslaught of the undead but also to reclaim their shattered world.

Led by their fearless commander, Captain Amelia, Gynaika was a force to be reckoned with. Each member possessed her own unique set of skills and determination, but together, they were an unstoppable army. Their resilience, resourcefulness, and unwavering spirit set them apart from the chaos that consumed the remnants of humanity.

Captain Amelia had witnessed the world collapse around her, watching friends and loved ones succumb to the relentless hunger of the undead. Determined not to let despair consume her, she vowed to fight for a brighter future. Gathering a group of like-minded women, she formed Gynaika, a sanctuary amidst the chaos.

As Gynaika ventured into the treacherous world outside, they encountered various challenges. They faced not only the relentless threat of the undead but also rival survivor factions, each vying for control and dominance. Yet, Gynaika's unwavering commitment to their mission and the bond that bound them together allowed them to overcome every obstacle in their path.

Word of Gynaika's existence began to spread, reaching those desperate for hope. Survivors from all walks of life flocked to join their ranks, seeking solace and purpose in the face of the apocalypse. Gynaika welcomed them with open arms, training them in the art of combat and survival, forging a sisterhood that would never be broken.

Campaign Mode: In this mode, players fight against the undead. The objective is to clear 19 dungeons, with each subsequent dungeon becoming increasingly difficult. As players progress through the dungeons, they will earn more powerful and destructive in-game weapons.

PKZ Mode: This mode, known as "Players Kill Zombies," involves grouping players together in an arena to battle against the undead. To unlock this mode, players need to possess GNFT (Gynaika Non-Fungible Token). The more undead a player eliminates, the more $Gaka they earn.

PKP Mode: In this mode, players engage in a death match within an arena. Players can opt for various team sizes, ranging from 1v1 to 5v5 or more. Multiple arenas are available for players to choose from. To unlock this mode, players need a GNFT, and they are required to stake $Gaka. The more players you eliminate the more $Gaka you earn. Players will be matched randomly. 95% of the staked $Gaka goes to the players and 2% goes to the dev, 1% will be burnt and 2% goes to staking.
